MRS. NATHANIEL THAYER TAKES UP NEW DUTIES

Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer, who was recently appointed by Gov. Coolidge as director of alien education, which includes the former Bureau of Immigration, has enthusiastically taken up the duties of her office, and is bringing to the task the same breadth of vision, patriots and sympathy that made her services as chairman of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense so effective during the war.

Mrs. Thayer has associated with her Mrs. Herbert J. Gurney, former president of the State Federation, as field secretary, and Miss Mary Barr as a member of her advisory council.

Mrs. Gurney will keep her connection with the State Thrift organization, as the two interests can be very effectively combined.

SUGGESTIONS BY MR. DALLESSANDRO.

1 To take care of aliens as soon as they arrive in the country, with the consent of the Deparfment of Labor, so our representatives will be all allowed to go on the steamer before it docks, presenting the aliens with our cards so they will know who is interesrted in them, then they will naturally turn to us when they get into any difficulty or trouble. This interest on our part shows that we are ready and willing to receive them in the proper spirit.

2. This board will endeavor to have the Immigration Department notify us in case an immigrant is detained so we will have an opportunity to make an investigation and procure bonds for his relewse.

3 We should endeavor to have the Naturalization Law changed so it will be easier for the immigrant to become a citizen.

4. This board should attempt to have the State procure industrial films and give lectures in foreign languages setting forth the industrial possibilities of this country. In order to insure a good attendance at these lectures notices should be sent to the public schools in the foreign districts a few days in advance of the proposed lecture.

5. This Board should endeavor to have all the industries do their share in assimilating the aliens employed. I suggest conferences to be held with the President and the Secretary of the different industries to impress upon them the necessity of assisting us in this work of Americanization.

INTERPRETER ROSS GETS JAIL TERM

Convicted of Soliciting Business for a Lawyer

Joseph Ross, an Italian interpreter and a bondsman, was found guilty of soliciting legal business for a lawyer yesterday by Judge Murray of the municipal court and was given a six month's sentence. He appealed and was held in $500 for the superior court.

The evidence as presented by Atty. A. E. Pinansky of the state board of education, division of immigration and Americanization, was that investigation of Joseph Merenda, acting for the board, showed that Ross solicited the father of Giuseppe Conforto, a young Italian arrested for murder.

Conforto said that a young man called at his home after his son's arrest and told him he was wanted. He went to station 1, he said, and there met Ross, who told him his boy was in serious trouble and that Ross knew of an attorney who could get him out if anyone could. They went to the office of Atty. Thomas Grady, it was testified, and there after some dickering during which Conforto said the attorney wanted $800 for the case, Conforto finally got the price down to $600. Conforto testified he paid the lawyer $580 altogether on the case.

Ross denied having solicited business from Conforto. He said he had expected to act as interpreter in the case and that his interest ceased there.

Atty. Grady testified for Ross and declared that as far as he knew Conforto came to him through the advice of one of Conforto's friends.

Judge Murray severely assailed "running" tactics in summing up after the evidence and declared that he had no hesitation in finding Ross guilty. He said that there had been many complaints about men who pretended to be friends of their fellow countrymen and who did not prove to be their real friends. Judge Thomas Riley acted as Ross' counsel.

Presents Photograph

A young immigrant in a gray-green uniform, who had been an aviator in the Italian army and credited with having been the first Italian to enter Trieste after the defeat of the Austrians, gave Signora Ponzi his photograph in his aviator's uniform, with a friendly message written on the back.

An Italian who had on only an undershirt and a pair of trousers appealed to Mr. Ponzi to get him something to wear so that he could continue his journey. Mr. Ponzi had nothing of his own that would fit, so he requested Investigator Merenda to get the man some suitable garments as soon as any stores are open this morning.

Mr. Ponzi belittled everything that he had done, saying that it was but a slight acknowledgment of his gratitude at his reunion with his mother.

"I think, however," he said, "that a way ought to be found to provide for an emergency like this. Here is a situation that has arisen for which these passengers are not to blame in the slightest. It arises from entirely outside causes and the passengers should not be made to suffer from circumstances resulting from causes beyond their control. It is an occasion in which red tape should be eliminated altogether."

"The Development of Democracy" was discussed this afternoon by Mrs. Herbert J. Gurney at the meeting of the West Roxbury Women's Club. After Mrs. Gurney's talk, there was a short musical program by Miss Gladys Berry, 'cellist, accompanied by Mrs. William S. Mitchell.

The meeting was held in Highland Club hall, with Mrs. Paul A. Peters, the president, in the chair.

RUN ON BANK IN NORTH END

First State Bank Pays Out Nearly $100,000

Hundreds of depositors of the First State Bank, Salem and Parmenter streets, North End, participated in a "run" on that institution last night between 7 and 9 o'clock.

Close to $100,000 in deposits, many of them Christmas club accounts, have been withdrawn. Outside the bank, which is considered one of the largest of its type in the North End, 1000 persons gathered while the run was on.

It was an aftermath of the Ponzi expose. A recent statement to the effect that a North End institution might soon be closed, crystalized into mouth-to-mouth warnings, resulted in last night's wholesale withdrawals from the Salem street institution, it was declared.

There was no disorder, and as fast as the clerks and officials could work, the determined depositors were given their money. Although the bank's closing hour is 8 p. m., President Thomas Nutile kept the doors open until an hour later.

After closing the bank's doors President Nutile mounted a chair on the sidewalk and addressed the crowd.

"I am the president of this bank," he said, and the hundreds were hushed to hear him. "This bank is ready to receive or to pay out money to any and all depositors. Whoever wants his or her money can have it. My assistants are tired out tonight. We will reopen tomorrow and will continue to pay tomorrow, the next day and next month and next year," he added. "This bank is independent and has no connection with any other institution."

RUN ON FIRST STAT BANK COMES TO END

Patrons of North End Institution Are Reassured

The "run" on the First State Bank, Salem and Parmenter streets, North end, halted last night when patrons of the institution showed their confidence in its management by making deposits. About $100,000 was drawn out in the two days of the run.

It was charged in bank reports that enemies started the "run" by circulating rumors to the effect that the First State Bank was involved in the Ponzi case. Thomas Nutile, the president, declared that the bank has no connection with any other institution. Many persons in line with the intention of withdrawing funds were reassured by piles of bills within the cage, said to amount to more than $200,000. The bank has a cash surplus of $500,000, according to officials. Depositors exceeded in number those present to withdraw funds last night. The bank was kept open until 9 o'clock to accommodate the public.

5000 IMMIGRANTS PASS ELLIS ISLAND WEEKLY

Department of Labor Announces Turn in Tide of Emigration

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18—More than 5000 immigrants are arriving daily at Ellis Island, the department of labor announced today in reporting that the tide of emigration which set in after the armistice had been more than balanced by the increasing inflow of immigrants.

Only the lack of transportation facilities and the difficulties of emigration from central Europe, officials of the department of labor said, has prevented the outstripping of all previous records during the past year. Despite these unfavorable conditions, approximately 800,000 immigrants arrived in the United States during the 12 months ending June 30, as compared with 141,132 during the corresponding period the year before, and the record of 1,285,349 in 1907.

Foreign steamship companies have reported to the immigration authorities that all available accommodations for a year in advance have been booked by prospective immigrants.

HOLD CRETIC AT ANCHORAGE

Take Precautions to Prevent Entry of Disease

To the great disappointment of her first and second-class passengers, the White Star line steamship Cretic, which arrived at quarantine shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Mediterranean ports and the Azores, was obliged to remain at anchor in the lower harbor when they had planned to land and go to their various destinations. This morning, at 6 o'clock, the steerage passengers will be taken off and transferred to Gallup's Island, where they will be bathed and have their baggage sterilized. The liner will then proceed to Commonwealth pier, where customs and immigration officers wait to examine the other passengers. Late this afternoon the steerage passengers will be brought to the city.

The Cretic brought in 221 saloon, 104 cabin and 1467 steerage passengers. Among the saloonists are Luigi Barra, one of the biggest glove manufacturers in Italy, who comes here to attend a law case in which he has a vital interest; Wendell Clarke, Canadian commissioner to Italy; A. Fresinetti, a wealthy Californian, and his family, returning from a visit to their old home; Max E. Pesnel, travelling oil salesman; Miss Belle Powell of New York, who has been abroad three years studying opera, and Mrs. Edith T. Bliss, a missionary. G. A. Preuss and his daughter, Casol, who were interned four years at Vienna, and only recently obtained their release, are also returning home on the Cretic.

BIG SHIPS MAY COME TO BOSTON

Transatlantic Liners Want to Land Their Passengers at This Port

Sept. 27, 1920.

Boston will soon take the place of New York as disembarking point for passengers from Europe transported by a number of big transatlantic lines, in the belief of Commissioner of Immigration Henry J. Skeffington.

Mr. Skeffington announced today that agents on a number of lines had conferred with him and were so impressed with the local possibilities for handling passengers that he expected a number of liners would be diverted to this port by wireless.

The passengers would be disembarked at Commonwealth Pier, he said, the steamships then continuing to New York where freight would be unloaded and passengers for the eastern trip taken aboard.

"The agent of one big French line called on me today," said Mr. Skeffington, "and was much impressed by the great advantages that would accrue to his line by disembarking passengers at Boston. Before the war we were able to handle more than 100,000 passengers here annually. There is no reason why we should not do it now with no considerable increase to our force.

"I would call in my scattered men from Portland to Providence on the arrival of any ship and would expedite the handling of passengers."

Ellis Island is swamped by immigrants. Inspector are from a week to ten days behind in their work and big liners are being held in port owing to the delay in examining passengers.

"Boston could handle 10,000 passengers a month if necessary," said Commissioner Skeffington. "We have every facility here to take care of a large amount of business and I expect to see ships from Europe

White Star Liner Canopic Arrives with 1513 Passengers and Huge Cargo of Malaga Grapes

The White Star liner Canopic arrived in Boston yesterday from Genoa, Naples and The Azores with 1513 passengers and with 26,780 barrels of Malaga grapes, the largest shipment of the season, in her holds.

The Canopic encountered head winds for the greater part of the trip, and was nearly a day late in arriving in Boston, making the run in 21 days. The steamer sailed from Genoa Sept. 26, and touched at Naples for additional passengers Oct. 1. She carried a clean bill of health, made only a short stop off Quarantine to take on customs officers and a port doctor, and steamed up to an anchorage off East Boston, for a two-hour wait until a change in the tide had given deeper water off Commonwealth Pier. Then she was towed to her berth. While in the stream, she was surrounded by many small steam and sail vessels containing American friends of passengers, and the small fleet followed as she made her berth.

During the past few months, all steamers arriving in Boston from Italian and other Mediterranean ports have been subjected to delays for physical examinations, owing to friction between the American and Italian public health officials, but there was no delay yesterday, as the Italian government surgeons, Dr. Carlo Mario Pertusio and Dr. Corrado D'Alise were on active duty during the steamer's run. Furthermore on the passenger list was Maj. Dr. Alberto Fattori, an inspector-general of the Royal [illegible] family, who are making a first visit to the United States, were Conte A. Facchetti-Guiglia, C. sa Olga Facchetti-Guiglia, A. T. Facchetti-Guiglia and Miss Nadia Facchetti-Guiglia and maid. Members of the family said that conditions in Italy were improving, but were far from pre-war prosperity. The count stated that the was on a business and pleasure trip which would include visits to New York, Pacific coast cities and a return by way of Canada. Present plans of the party are to spend at least six months here before taking their departure for Italy.

Mrs. Josephine Clark of New York, who has been studying music in Milan and returns for opera work, was accompanied home by her son, James Clark.

No Hitch at Pier

Others who returned were Mrs. Teresina Conte and her son, James Conte, of Chicago; Mrs. Elizabeth Haefliger, and her children, Hans and Martha, of Berne, Switzerland, to visit relatives in New York and later for an extended tour of the United States; Augustave Iberti of the Italian consular service, who is on a mission to Mexico, and will visit New York and Washington on the way to his post; Giovanni Piuma of the Royal Italian consular service, who is to be consular agent in Los Angeles; Augusto Borlasca, a prominent merchant of Genoa, Mrs. Borlasca and maid, who are to visit friends in New York and sail from that port later to San Salvador to study trade conditions, and the Rev. Tommaso Cappellino and the Rev. Jerrico Bruno, clergymen stationed in Palermo, Italy.

ASKS CHANGE IN BANKING LAWS

Allen Makes Important Recommendations

Bank Commissioner Joseph C. Allen recommends amendment of the law so that no foreign word having the meaning of "bank," "banking" or "trust" may be used by any person to designate their business unless the business is actually that of a bank or trust company.

"There is nothing in the law of the State," says Mr. Allen, "to prevent a person, firm or corporation from using a foreign word having a meaning the same as or similar to 'bank,' 'banking' or 'trust,' and thereby defeating the laws which permit the use of these words only by banks and trust companies."

The commissioner recommends the following changes in the laws regulating trust companies: Forbidding any person to be a director of a trust company unless he is the record owner of not less than 10 shares of unpledged stock, and stipulating that not more than one-third of the directors of a trust company shall be directors in any other such corporation; extending the call for returns from trust companies from not oftener than five to not oftener than six times a year; amending the law requiring every trust company chartered from 1896 to set aside a guaranty fund amounting to 25 per cent of its capital, exempting those companies which have a surplus fund equal to 25 per cent or more of its capital stock outstanding.

F COMMENDS ABOLITION OF DIVISION OF IMMIGRATION

Abolition of the Division of Immigration and Americanization, and the transfer of the work conducted by this division to the Department of Education, is one of the recommendations contained in the annual report of Thomas W. White, State Supervisor of Administration.

In his report, Supervisor White says that the powers of the Department of Education have been enlarged in respect to Americanization work by recent legislation, and he claims that, as now conducted, the two departments in the State Government are doing duplicate work. His bill provides that the division shall be taken over by the Department of Education, and shall be known as the Bureau of Immigration and Americanization.

ASKS CHANGE IN BANKING LAWS

Allen Makes Important Recommendations

Bank Commissioner Joseph C. Allen recommends amendment of the law so that no foreign word having the meaning of "bank," "banking" or "trust" may be used by any person to designate their business unless the business is actually that of a bank or trust company.

"There is nothing in the law of the State," says Mr. Allen, "to prevent a person, firm or corporation from using a foreign word having a meaning the same as or similar to 'bank,' 'banking' or 'trust,' and thereby defeating the laws which permit the use of these words only by banks and trust companies."

The commissioner recommends the following changes in the laws regulating trust companies: Forbidding any person to be a director of a trust company unless he is the record owner of not less than 10 shares of unpledged stock, and stipulating that not more than one-third of the directors of a trust company shall be directors in any other such corporation; extending the call for returns from trust companies from not oftener than five to not oftener than six times a year; amending the law requiring every trust company chartered from 1896 to set aside a guaranty fund amounting to 25 per cent of its capital, exempting those companies which have a surplus fund equal to 25 per cent or more of its capital stock outstandin

Miss Alice M. O'Connor

Dear Madam:

I respectfully beg to ask you for the following concessions.

First: To change my day from the Branch office from Friday to Thursday, to take effect December 19th. Friday is an inconvenient day for me. on account of the hrs. in the evening school which I attend. Should this concession be granted, I will make the necessary arrangements in the news. papers to inform the people about the change. I will also ask the priests to make an announcement to the people to this effect.

Second: To grant me permission to employ any of the stenographers appointed by you in case of emergency in this office. Your plan of asking your permission each time when a necessary service is required is an impracticable one, especially when you are out of the office and an applicant is waiting. I am requesting for this concession not for my own convenience

but for the benefit of applicants coming to this office.

Thurd. I would respectfully request you not to open any letters addressed to me. The system as adopted by this office is not practiced by any other department in the State House not being ethical and being non-American. Knowing Mr.
Rothwell I hardly doubt that it was his intention to have it practised by this office and I can assure you that such procedure would ~~possibly~~ positively meet with the absolute condemnation of the present chief, Mrs. Thayer.

Moreover the date shows it to be written December 13 and delivered to me December 16th. I am willing to put the blame for the delay on the postal authorities. If is true that this was an official one but since the envelope bears my name it was not indicated whether it was an official one or of a private nature. When a letter is opened in the future, by mistake, I will respectfully request an apology from you for doing so.

Fourth: I feel that any remarks as to the tactics of Col. Mallon and any personal remarks ought to be taken up by Mrs. Thayer. Personally, I am always convinced that when Col Mallon calls me to his department he does it with the sanction of Mrs Thayer.

I have never practised signing official letters and never intend to do so in the future. The letter in question, owing to special circumstances, was an exceptional one and I have reason to assume that if presented to Mrs. Thayer it would meet with her cordial approval.

I never encourage any applicants to write to me personally, but I cannot be blamed if anybody not knowing my home address sends a letter to this Office. The last letter was given me without an envelope.

The obligations which I fulfill in his office are important ones and I receive no pecuniary enumeration for them. Mrs. Thayer knows about it. If, however, for any reason, she wants me to discontinue services for Col Dalton I will be glad to comply with her wishes. Personally, acknowledging your authority in this office, I always inform you when I am leaving here.

Reassuring you & my respect due to you, I beg to remain, Madam,

Very truly yours.
